

Remembering Your Name

Words and Music by Bill Barwick
Originally written August 1975, Denver, CO
© 1994, Barwick's Voice & Music, BMI
CD: Cowboys, Liars and Lovers, 1993

1.

Last night I was sleepin' and you came and woke me gent'ly
And reminded me of how I felt when we first fell in love
You took my hand and led me to the corner of my mem'ry
Where I stored up all my feelin's of dreams that we dreamed of

CHORUS:

So I'm askin' as a favor, tho' I know it's not your doin'
I guess you're only partially to blame
Dance out of my dreams and walk-out on my mem'ry
Maybe then I'll find it harder, remembering you name

2.

Even in my conversations, when I get to lookin' backwards
You're standing there beside me, thru all the things I've done
Yes, I'm really awfully grateful for the mem'ries that you gave me
But all of that's behind us now, I have to carry-on

CHORUS