

Tinfoil Raindrops

Words and Music by Bill Barwick
© 1995, Barwick's Voice & Music, BMI
CD: (From) Somewhere Out West, 1995

1.

I wonder what you'd look like in the sunshine
I wonder how you'd feel in the early light of dawn
'Cause all I can remember is a heartbeat and a smile
And a rainy night of knowin'
In the mornin' you'd be gone

2.

Drivin' seems to put my mind in focus
Of just how much I'd lost in the knowin' you were gone
Your sunshine in my darkness, fallin' like the rain
And wishin' I could see you in the early light of dawn

CHORUS:

Tinfoil raindrops in my head lights
Too many long drives on lonely nights
Never seein' any other tail lights
And rollin' on

3.

I see your gentle face here before me
Askin' why I'm wondrin' why your lookin' back at me
Whisperin' in the darkness of the things that make you cry
And of your new found freedom and how happy you will be 4.

And all that I'm sayin' to you really
Is I know how it is when you start to askin' why
All that sunshine's worthless when you got no one to share
And all that bein' by yourself just makes you want to cry

CHORUS