CHORUS:

There ain't no need to take the time to explain it
I can feel it in my heart, that's where the pain is
There's no need to write it down, someone's taken my place
Darlin' I can read it, it's written all over your face

A.

There was a time, when you were mine we once were lovers
But that's over now, it's funny how time slips away
And after all is said and done, and there's nothin' left to say
Darlin' I can read it, it's written all over your face

B.

Now more and more, you're lookin' for some kind of reason
You can't seem to find a reason for makin' you stay
And after all is said and done, and there's nothin' left to say
Darlin' I can read it, it's written all over your face
